COURSE DESCRIPTION

The Diploma in Arts and Drawings is designed for you if you want to graduate from a Foundation Diploma to professional activity as an artist or to pursue your studies in higher education. This one-year curriculum focuses on the development of both practical and contextual abilities necessary for the effective development of a long-term studio practise. You can work in many disciplines or specialise in areas like painting & drawing, sculpture, printmaking, and textiles. This programme is intended to give a flexible alternative for students who have previously completed an Art and Design Foundation Diploma. Students who complete the programme have the option of continuing on to the Graduate Diploma in Fine Art.
