DIPLOMA IN CHARTERING AND SHIP BROKING

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This Certificate in Shipbroking and Chartering was created to offer people with the information they need to work in the ship owning chartering department or as competitive brokers in the shipping business. It should be noted that graduates of this Diploma in Chartering have acquired a demanding professional skill required for those working or intending to work in high executive positions involving sea transport such as ship operation, charterers' offices, claims departments, marine insurance, ship's agents, marine lawyers' offices, arbitrators, average adjusters, marine surveyors, bankers, and so on. The program's aims are to provide students with a complete understanding of facets of the marine industry in order for them to meet the requirements for entry into the nautical sector and its allied businesses. To that aim, the programme provides its students with a one-of-a-kind combination of professional and academic courses. Students who complete this programme will be able to quickly adapt to the demands of employers as well as respond correctly and creatively to new difficulties in a dynamic business.
