COURSE DESCRIPTION

Searching for leadership training? Do you want to increase your management abilities? Discover the fundamentals of effective leadership with our 10-week Leadership and Management training course, which is now available online. Our Leadership and Management course takes a wide historical and analytical perspective, drawing on core concepts of 21st Century management and applying them to real-world management scenarios for both large and small businesses. You will gain theoretical insights as well as practical advice for succeeding in today's performance-driven job market, such as organisation, motivation, teamwork, ethics, and personal growth. This management and leadership training teaches you how to make good judgements, win the respect of your colleagues, and contribute more effectively. If you are a recently appointed or aspiring manager with new duties, or an experienced professional assuming your first post in general management, this leadership and management course is for you.
