COURSE DESCRIPTION

BA English Literature is a demanding and intensive degree that covers a wide range of literary genres. The three-year degree programme allows students to study Poetry, Drama, Novel, Prose, and History. The course provides you with a broader perspective on the subject, with an emphasis on each category, allowing you to analyse Literature from various countries. The degree's core structure is critical analysis, which summarises a writer's work and interprets poets' geniuses. The programme teaches you about how writing patterns change over time and how writers established a distinct writing genre through popular movements such as Realism, Post Colonialism, and Existentialism. BA Literature electives include the Social History of England, the Shakespearean period, Indian literature, Australian literature, and Canadian literature. BA English Literature and Bachelor of Arts in Literature are two undergraduate English courses. Literature is one of the best forms of language. Literature courses cover topics such as English prose, poetry, essay and letter writing, English idioms and phrases, and English grammar. The BA in Literature degree programme covers nearly all of the most well-known and popular authors, including Chaucer, Shakespeare, Swift, Milton, Jane Austen, Dickens, and an endless list of others.
