COURSE DESCRIPTION

BPBA in Foreign Trade is an undergraduate degree programme in business management. After completing Class 12, eligible applicants may pursue the direction. BPBA in Foreign Trade, as the name suggests, focuses on the elements associated with international options, i.e., how products and services differ across countries. Students in this course gain a better understanding of how international trade works and the impact it has on a country's economy.

"Foreign alternate in India" refers to all imports and exports to and from India, according to Wikipedia. The Ministry of Commerce and Industry is in charge of its miles at the level of the Central Government.

The BBA in Foreign Trade programme lasts three years, divided into six semesters. Each semester lasts six months and includes a look at various topics and subjects associated with an international exchange. Students enrolled in this course learn about topics such as global exchange organisations, logistics, processes involved in international buying and selling, EXIM guidelines, and so on.
