COURSE DESCRIPTION

The course is designed for spa or beauty professionals who want to advance into management or who are already in a senior position but want to develop the skills and certifications required to be a more capable leader. The course is accelerated, combining face-to-face lectures and online self-paced study. Within the expanding spa business, there is a skills shortage for spa managers. According to GWI data, the worldwide spa business is worth a huge £79 billion, with sustained expansion since 2013 with 16,000 additional spas and 230,000 more employment. With a severe scarcity of experienced and certified spa managers, these market trends offer major hurdles. According to GSWS data from 2012, there are 180,000 spa managers places, but just 4,000 pupils are preparing for them. This illustrates the enormous prospects for a person with a spa management certification in the spa business, which is expected to develop further
